Publish Your First Book

Have you ever had a dream of publishing a book? Well here's your chance!!

This is a hands-on virtual class that provides you with tools to write and publish a book. Whether you always wanted to publish a children's, health & fitness, inspirational or other book; Groshek's fun, knowledgeable, high-energy will bring you up to date on the latest trends in writing a book, creating your characters, photos, illustrations, layout, and design!

This one year program is for creative, hard-working individuals and will include six virtual sessions with scheduled individual sessions. This is a great way to kick-start writing your first or additional book!

In this program you will have your manuscript edited, work your sketches to completion, work the covers of your book and work through the process of publishing your manuscript.

Your dream of being a published author will become a reality!
